Re: United States v. Raishawn Key, 22 Cr. 477 (VEC).

Dear Judge Caproni:

Our client, Raishawn Key, is currently released on a $150,000 PRB signed by six financially responsible individuals, and home detention enforced by location monitoring, with a curfew. He is restricted to travel within the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York.

We ask that his travel restrictions be temporarily modified to permit him to travel to Elizabeth, NJ on June 15th, to accompany his 16 year-old daughter to a court appearance. He intends to travel there and return on the same day.

We have spoken with A.U.S.A. Mitzi Steiner, who advised that the government defers to Pretrial Services. We have also spoken with Pretrial Services Officer Courtney DeFeo, who does not object to the request.

Thank you for your attention to this application.

Application GRANTED.

SO ORDERED.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Very truly yours,
